OPEN HOUSE SCHEDULED

The Florida Department of Transportation (FDOT) invites you to attend an open house about plans to install a new traffic signal at the intersection of North Orange Blossom Trail (State Road 500/U.S. 441) and Rosamond Drive in Orlando.

The open house will be held on Thursday, November 7, 2019, from 6:30 p.m. to 8:30 p.m. at the Rosemont Neighborhood Center located at 4872 Rose Bay Drive, Orlando. You may come any time during those hours to review project displays and to hold one-on-one conversations with the FDOT project team. There will be no project presentation.

The project is located within the City of Orlando and adjacent to unincorporated Orange County. The purpose of this project is to signalize the intersection of North Orange Blossom Trail and Rosamond Drive. This safety project also includes improving the intersection's traffic operations and installing pedestrian ramps, lighting, signal and crosswalks. Construction is expected to begin by summer 2023 at an estimated cost of $756,548.

Project information shared at the open house will be available for review online at www.cflroads.com by November 14, 2019 (search 441395-1). All written comments emailed or postmarked by November 18, 2019 will become a part of the open house summary. Please contact Mr. Miller (see above) for additional project information.
